TONIGHT!

CCKT hosts All Candidates Meeting for new King-Vaughan riding

Local and regional media encouraged to attend. Please RSVP!

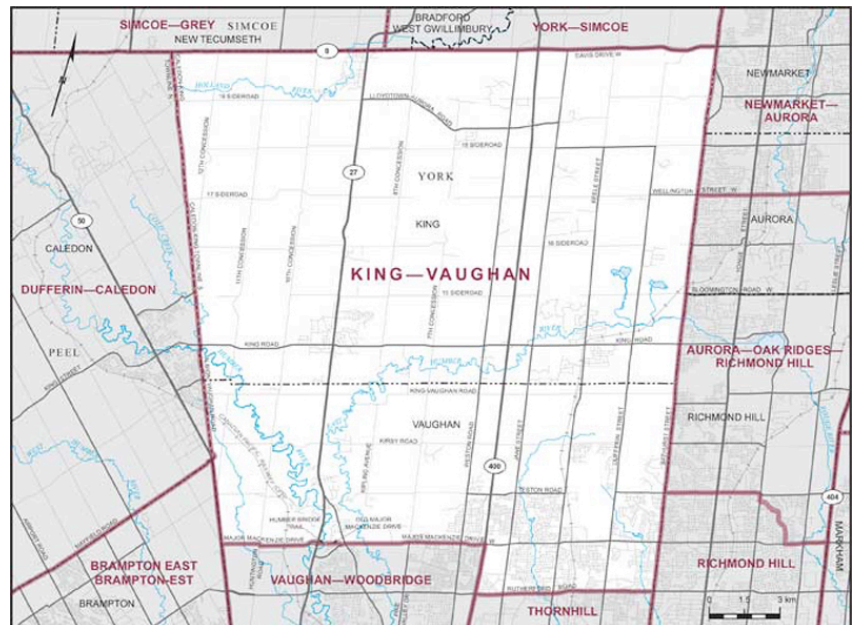

KING CITY – CCKT's All Candidates Meeting is TONIGHT including three of four riding candidates on Tuesday, October 6th, 7:00 pm at Villanova College, 2480 15th Sideroad, King City.

Candidates include (in alphabetical order): *

Ann Raney	Green Party
Natalie Rizzo	NDP
Deb Schulte	Liberal Party

* Konstantin Toubis, Conservative Party candidate, gave CCKT his formal notice of withdrawal via his Campaign Manager.

CCKT is a non-partisan, non-profit resident-lead volunteer organization with a 40+ year history providing service to local King Township and surrounding residents. Municipal, Provincial and Federal All Candidates Meetings are consistent with our mandate. We are delighted to have Villanova College host this most relevant and timely event to King Township and Vaughan residents.

The evening will be moderated by King Township Councillor Cleve Mortelliti. Each candidate will provide a 4-minute oral introduction to the audience. The moderator will then ask 4 questions of the candidates, 3 selected by CCKT and 1 selected by the Villanova College student body, distributed in advance to candidates. Candidates will have 3 minutes to answer each question. Candidates may request a 1-minute response following all candidates' answers. Following the moderator will open the floor to questions from the audience.

PLEASE RSVP your organization's intention to attend this event ASAP so we may plan accordingly. Most importantly: if you are bringing AV equipment to tape the event, please let us know at contact2015@cckt.ca
